

Coverage designed to keep your business moving

Because no two operations are alike, Allied Insurance offers flexible commercial auto insurance plans—designed to fit your business's needs. We can help you decide what coverage options and liability protections you need.

Coverage options

You deserve flexible, affordable options that allow you to design coverage that meets your unique needs. With Allied, you may select individualized protection for your commercial vehicles against many common causes of loss.

Liability protection

An important part of your commercial auto policy is liability protection. If someone gets hurt or their property is damaged in an accident involving one of your company vehicles, your business could be in jeopardy. Visit with us about the coverage you need.

Great extras—at no additional cost

Accidental airbag discharge: If your airbag accidentally deploys, Allied will pay for repair at no cost to you.

Glass repair: If your windshield gets chipped or cracked, Allied will pay for repair to prevent further damage and waive your deductible.

Emergency lockout: If you or your employee is locked out of your vehicle, Allied will pay up to $50 for a locksmith's services.

Additional coverages

Trailers and farm equipment: Gives you liability coverage for trailers made to be towed by a private passenger vehicle, farm pickup, panel truck, or van—even if not used for business purposes.

Newly acquired vehicles: If you get a new vehicle and tell us within 30 days and Allied already insures an auto you own, Allied will provide liability and physical damage coverages for your new vehicle.

Blanket additional insured: Covers any person or organization you agree to name as an additional insured in a written contract.

Autos hired or rented by employees: Coverage automatically applies if hired or rented autos are covered autos on the policy.

Electronic equipment: Coverage for factory installed electronic devices.

Working harder for you

Allied delivers quality products and coverages tailored to meet the unique insurance needs of your business at a competitive price.
